JOAO CONTROL & MONITORING SYSTEMS, LLC,

Plaintiff,

v.

NISSAN NORTH AMERICA, INC.,

Defendant.

Civil Action No. 1:14-cv-523

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR PATENT INFRINGEMENT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff Joao Control & Monitoring Systems, LLC ("Plaintiff" or "JCMS"), by and through its undersigned counsel, files its First Amended Complaint for Patent Infringement against Defendant Nissan North America, Inc. ("Defendant" or "Nissan") as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This is a patent infringement action to stop Defendant's infringement of Plaintiff's United States Patent No. 5,917,405 entitled "Control Apparatus and Methods for Vehicles" (hereinafter, the "'405 Patent"; a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A), United States Patent No. 6,542,076 entitled "Control, Monitoring and/or Security Apparatus and Method" (the "'076 Patent"; a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B), United States Patent No. 6,549,130 entitled "Control Apparatus and Method for Vehicles and/or for Premises" (the "'130 Patent"; a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit C) (hereinafter the "Patents-in-Suit"), and United States Patent No. 7,397,363 entitled "Control and/or Monitoring Apparatus and Method" (the "'363 Patent"; a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit D). Plaintiff is the owner of the '405 Patent, the '076 Patent, the '130 Patent, and the '363 Patent. Plaintiff seeks injunctive relief and monetary damages.

PARTIES

- 2. JCMS is a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of the state of Delaware. Plaintiff maintains its principal place of business at 122 Bellevue Place, Yonkers, Westchester County, New York, 10703. Plaintiff is the owner of the Patents-in-Suit, and possesses all rights thereto, including the exclusive right to exclude the Defendant from making, using, selling, offering to sell or importing in this district and elsewhere into the United States the patented invention(s) of the Patents-in-Suit, the right to sublicense the Patents-in-Suit, and to sue the Defendant for infringement and recover past damages.
- 3. Upon information and belief, Nissan is a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware having its principal place of business located at One Nissan Way, Franklin, Tennessee, 37067. Defendant may be served through its registered agent, The Prentice-Hall Corporation System, Inc., 2711 Centerville Road, Suite 400, Wilmington, Delaware, 19808.
- 4. Upon information and belief, Nissan ships, distributes, offers for sale, sells, and/or advertises its Products and Services, namely vehicles equipped with systems that may be electronically controlled from a remote location, under the brand name "Nissan."

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. This action arises under the Patent Laws of the United States, 35 U.S.C. § 1 et seq., including 35 U.S.C. §§ 271, 281, 283, 284, and 285. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this case for patent infringement under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a).

6. The Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because: Defendant has minimum contacts within the State of Delaware and in the District of Delaware; Defendant has purposefully availed itself of the privileges of conducting business in the State of Delaware and in the District of Delaware; Defendant has sought protection and benefit from the laws of the State of Delaware; Defendant regularly conducts business within the State of Delaware and within the District of Delaware, and Plaintiff's causes of action arise directly from Defendant's business contacts and other activities in the State of Delaware and in the District of Delaware.

7. More specifically, Defendant, directly and/or through its intermediaries, ships, distributes, offers for sale, sells, and/or advertises (including the provision of an interactive web page) its products and services in the United States, the State of Delaware, and the District of Delaware. Upon information and belief, Defendant has committed patent infringement in the State of Delaware and in the District of Delaware. Defendant solicits customers in the State of Delaware and in the District of Delaware. Defendant has many paying customers who are residents of the State of Delaware and the District of Delaware and who use Defendant's products and services in the State of Delaware and in the District of Delaware.

8. Venue is proper in the District of Delaware pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and 1400(b).

COUNT I INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 5,917,405

- 14. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each of Paragraphs 1-13 above.
- 15. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant has infringed and continues to infringe the '405 Patent either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents. Upon information and belief, Defendant has infringed and continues to infringe one or more claims of the '405 Patent by advertising, providing, selling, and using an apparatus capable of remotely controlling a vehicle system. Defendant provides an onboard computer, incorporated into Defendant's vehicles, that enables remote control of a vehicle system. Specifically, one or more of Defendant's Products and Services, including but not limited to the Bluetooth® Calling, Bluetooth® Audio Streaming, and SiriusXM<sup>TM</sup> radio through the onboard computer functionality offered in its vehicles, infringe one or more of the claims of the '405 Patent via signals between a communication device (in the case of Bluetooth®) or Server (in the case of SiriusXM<sup>TM</sup>) located remote from the vehicle and satellite or cellular station, a satellite or cellular station located remote from the vehicle and communication device or Server, and the onboard computer located at the vehicle which activates the vehicle's audio system. Defendant's infringing Products and Services are available for sale on its website www.nissanusa.com and through various retailers located in this district.
- 16. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant and its customers collectively have infringed and continue to infringe the '405 Patent either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents. Upon information and belief, Defendant and its customers have infringed and continue to infringe one or more claims of the '405 Patent by advertising, providing, selling, and using an apparatus capable of remotely controlling a vehicle system. Defendant provides an onboard computer, incorporated into Defendant's vehicles, that enables Defendant's customers to remotely control a vehicle system. Specifically, one or more of Defendant's Products and Services, including but not limited to the Bluetooth® Calling, Bluetooth® Audio Streaming, and SiriusXM<sup>TM</sup> radio through the onboard computer functionality offered in Defendant's vehicles, infringe one or more of the claims of the '405 Patent via signals between a communication device (in the case of Bluetooth®) or Server (in the case of SiriusXM<sup>TM</sup>) located remote from the vehicle and satellite or cellular station, a satellite or cellular station located remote from the vehicle and communication device or Server, and the onboard computer located at the vehicle which activates the vehicle's audio system. Defendant's infringing Products and Services are available for sale on its website www.nissanusa.com and through various retailers located in this district.

17. Upon information and belief, Defendant has intentionally induced and continues to induce infringement of one or more claims of the '405 Patent in this district and elsewhere in the United States, by its intentional acts which have successfully, among other things, encouraged, instructed, enabled and otherwise caused its customers to use Defendant's vehicles as previously described in this Count. Despite its knowledge of the existence of the '405 Patent since as early as January 4, 2013, Defendant, upon information and belief, continues to encourage, instruct, enable and otherwise cause its customers to use its Products and Services in a manner which infringes the '405 Patent. Upon information and belief, Defendant has specifically intended that its customers use its Products and Services in such a way that infringes the '405 Patent by, at a minimum, providing and supporting the Products and Services and instructing its customers on how to use said Products and Services in such a way that infringes the '405 Patent and knew that its actions, including but not limited to providing said Products and Services and instruction, would induce, have induced, and will continue to induce infringement by its customers.

18. Defendant's aforesaid activities have been without authority and/or license from

Plaintiff.

19. Despite its knowledge of the '405 Patent, known of at least since January 4, 2013 and without a reasonable basis for continuing the infringing activities previously described in this Count, on information and belief, Defendant has willfully infringed the '405 Patent.

20. Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendant the damages sustained by Plaintiff

as a result of Defendant's wrongful acts in an amount subject to proof at trial, which, by law, cannot be less than a reasonable royalty, together with interest and costs as fixed by this Court

under 35 U.S.C. § 284.

COUNT II INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 6,542,076

21. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each of Paragraphs 1-13 above.

22. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant has infringed and continues to infringe the '076 Patent either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents. Upon information and belief, Defendant has infringed and continues to infringe one or more claims of the '076

Patent by advertising and using an apparatus capable of remotely controlling a vehicle system.

Defendant provides an onboard computer, incorporated into Defendant's vehicles, which enables remote control of a vehicle system. Specifically, one or more of Defendant's Products and Services, including but not limited to the Bluetooth® Calling, Bluetooth® Audio Streaming, and SiriusXM<sup>TM</sup> radio through the onboard computer functionality offered in Defendant's vehicles, infringe one or more of the claims of the '076 Patent via signals between a communication device (in the case of Bluetooth®) or Server (in the case of SiriusXM<sup>TM</sup>) located remote from the vehicle and satellite or cellular station, a satellite or cellular station located remote from the vehicle and communication device or Server, and the onboard computer located at the vehicle which activates the vehicle's audio system. Defendant's infringing Products and Services are available for sale on its website www.nissanusa.com and through various retailers located in this district.

23. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant and its customers collectively have infringed and continue to infringe the '076 Patent either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents. Upon information and belief, Defendant and its customers have infringed and continue to infringe one or more claims of the '076 Patent by advertising and using an apparatus capable of remotely controlling a vehicle system. Defendant provides an onboard computer, incorporated into Defendant's vehicles, which enables Defendant's customers to remotely control a vehicle system. Specifically, one or more of Defendant's Products and Services, including but not limited to the Bluetooth® Calling, Bluetooth® Audio Streaming, and SiriusXM<sup>TM</sup> radio through the onboard computer functionality offered in Defendant's vehicles, infringe one or more of the claims of the '076 Patent via signals between a communication device (in the case of Bluetooth®) or Server (in the case of SiriusXM<sup>TM</sup>) located remote from the vehicle and satellite or cellular station, a satellite or cellular station located remote from the vehicle and communication device or Server, and the onboard computer located at the vehicle which activates the vehicle's audio system. Defendant's infringing Products and Services are available for sale on its website www.nissanusa.com and through various retailers located in this district.

24. Upon information and belief, Defendant has intentionally induced and continues to induce infringement of one or more claims of the '076 Patent in this district and elsewhere in the United States, by its intentional acts which have successfully, among other things, encouraged, instructed, enabled and otherwise caused its customers to use Defendant's vehicles

as previously described in this Count. Despite its knowledge of the existence of the '076 Patent since as early as January 4, 2013, Defendant, upon information and belief, continues to encourage, instruct, enable and otherwise cause its customers to use its Products and Services in a manner which infringes the '076 Patent. Upon information and belief, Defendant has specifically intended that its customers use its Products and Services in such a way that infringes

the '076 Patent by, at a minimum, providing and supporting the Products and Services and instructing its customers on how to use said Products and Services in such a way that infringes

the '076 Patent and knew that its actions, including but not limited to providing said Products and Services and instruction, would induce, have induced, and will continue to induce infringement by its customers.

25. Defendant's aforesaid activities have been without authority and/or license from

Plaintiff.

26. Despite its knowledge of the '076 Patent, known of at least since January 4, 2013

and without a reasonable basis for continuing the infringing activities as previously described in this Count, on information and belief, Defendant has willfully infringed the '076 Patent.

27. Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendant the damages sustained by Plaintiff

as a result of Defendant's wrongful acts in an amount subject to proof at trial, which, by law,

cannot be less than a reasonable royalty, together with interest and costs as fixed by this Court

under 35 U.S.C. § 284.

COUNT III INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 6,549,130

- 28. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each of Paragraphs 1-13 above.
- 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant has infringed and continues to infringe the '130 Patent either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents. Upon information and belief, Defendant has infringed and continues to infringe one or more claims of the '130 Patent by advertising and using an apparatus capable of remotely controlling a vehicle system. Defendant provides an onboard computer, incorporated into Defendant's vehicles, which enables remote control of a vehicle system. Specifically, one or more of Defendant's Products and Services, including but not limited to the Bluetooth® Calling, Bluetooth® Audio Streaming, and SiriusXM<sup>TM</sup> radio through the onboard computer functionality offered in Defendant's vehicles, infringe one or more of the claims of the '130 Patent via signals between a communication device (in the case of Bluetooth®) or Server (in the case of SiriusXM<sup>TM</sup>) located remote from the vehicle and satellite or cellular station, a satellite or cellular station located remote from the vehicle and communication device or Server, and the onboard computer located at the vehicle which activates the vehicle's audio system. Defendant's infringing Products and Services are available for sale on its website www.nissanusa.com and through various retailers located in this district.
- 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant and its customers collectively have infringed and continue to infringe the '130 Patent either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents. Upon information and belief, Defendant and its customers have infringed and continue to infringe one or more claims of the '130 Patent by advertising and using an apparatus capable of remotely controlling a vehicle system. Defendant provides an onboard computer, incorporated into Defendant's vehicles, which enables Defendant's customers to remotely control a vehicle system. Specifically, one or more of Defendant's Products and Services, including but not limited to the Bluetooth® Calling, Bluetooth® Audio Streaming, and SiriusXM<sup>TM</sup> radio through the onboard computer functionality offered in Defendant's vehicles, infringe one or more of the claims of the '130 Patent via signals between a communication device (in the case of Bluetooth®) or Server (in the case of SiriusXM<sup>TM</sup>) located remote from the vehicle and satellite or cellular station, a satellite or cellular station located remote from the vehicle and communication device or Server, and the onboard computer located at the vehicle which activates the vehicle's audio system. Defendant's infringing Products and Services are available for sale on its website www.nissanusa.com and through various retailers located in this district.

31. Upon information and belief, Defendant has intentionally induced and continues to induce infringement of one or more claims of the '130 Patent in this district and elsewhere in the United States, by its intentional acts which have successfully, among other things, encouraged, instructed, enabled and otherwise caused its customers to use Defendant's vehicles as previously described in this Count. Despite its knowledge of the existence of the '130 Patent since as early as January 4, 2013, Defendant, upon information and belief, continues to encourage, instruct, enable and otherwise cause its customers to use its Products and Services in a manner which infringes the '130 Patent. Upon information and belief, Defendant has specifically intended that its customers use its Products and Services in such a way that infringes the '130 Patent by, at a minimum, providing and supporting the Products and Services and instructing its customers on how to use said Products and Services in such a way that infringes the '130 Patent and knew that its actions, including but not limited to providing said Products and Services and instruction, would induce, have induced, and will continue to induce infringement by its customers.

- 32. Defendant's aforesaid activities have been without authority and/or license from Plaintiff.
- 33. Despite its knowledge of the '130 Patent, known of at least since January 4, 2013 and without a reasonable basis for continuing the infringing activities as previously described in this Count, on information and belief, Defendant has willfully infringed the '130 Patent.
- 34. Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendant the damages sustained by Plaintiff as a result of Defendant's wrongful acts in an amount subject to proof at trial, which, by law, cannot be less than a reasonable royalty, together with interest and costs as fixed by this Court under 35 U.S.C. § 284.

COUNT III INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 7,397,363

- 35. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each of Paragraphs 1-13 above.
- 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant has infringed and continues to infringe the '363 Patent either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents. Upon information and belief, Defendant has infringed and continues to infringe one or more claims of the '363 Patent by advertising and using an apparatus capable of remotely controlling a vehicle system. Defendant provides an onboard computer, incorporated into Defendant's vehicles, which enables remote control of a vehicle system. Specifically, and by way of example, Defendant's NissanConnect system provides the service "Google Send to Car", whereby a user sends a signal via his personal smartphone or computer to the Nissan server over the Internet or the World Wide Web, which sends a signal to the user's vehicle, thereby activating the vehicle's navigation system. Both the user's smartphone or computer and the Nissan server are located remote from each other and remote from the vehicle. Defendant's infringing Products and Services are available for sale on its website www.nissanusa.com and through various retailers located in this district.

37. Upon information and belief, Defendant has intentionally induced and continues to induce infringement of one or more claims of the '363 Patent in this district and elsewhere in the United States, by its intentional acts which have successfully, among other things, encouraged, instructed, enabled and otherwise caused its customers to use Defendant's vehicles

as previously described in this Count. Despite its knowledge of the existence of the '363 Patent

since as early as January 4, 2013, Defendant, upon information and belief, continues to encourage, instruct, enable and otherwise cause its customers to use its Products and Services in a manner which infringes the '363 Patent. Upon information and belief, Defendant has

the '363 Patent by, at a minimum, providing and supporting the Products and Services and

instructing its customers on how to use said Products and Services in such a way that infringes

the '363 Patent and knew that its actions, including but not limited to providing said Products

and Services and instruction, would induce, have induced, and will continue to induce infringement by its customers.

38. Defendant's aforesaid activities have been without authority and/or license from

Plaintiff.

39. Despite its knowledge of the '363 Patent, known of at least since January 4, 2013

and without a reasonable basis for continuing the infringing activities as previously described in this Count, on information and belief, Defendant has willfully infringed the '363 Patent.

40. Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendant the damages sustained by Plaintiff as a result of Defendant's wrongful acts in an amount subject to proof at trial, which, by law, cannot be less than a reasonable royalty, together with interest and costs as fixed by this Court under 35 U.S.C. § 284.

41. Defendant's infringement of Plaintiff's rights under the '363 Patent will continue to damage Plaintiff, causing irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at law, unless enjoined by this Court.

JURY DEMAND

42. Plaintiff demands a trial by jury on all issues.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff respectfully requests the following relief:

- A. An adjudication that one or more claims of the Patents-in-Suit have been infringed, either literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents, by the Defendant and/or its customers and that such infringement is willful;
- B. An adjudication that Defendant has induced infringement of one or more claims of the Patents-in-Suit by Defendant's customers;
- C. An award of damages to be paid by Defendant adequate to compensate Plaintiff for its past infringement, including interest, costs, and disbursements as justified under 35 U.S.C. § 284 and, if necessary to adequately compensate Plaintiff for Defendant's infringement, an accounting of all infringing sales including, but not limited to, those sales not presented at trial;

- D. A grant of permanent injunction pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 283, enjoining the Defendant from further acts of infringement with respect to the claims of the '363 Patent;
- E. That, should Defendant's acts of infringement be found to be willful from the time that Defendant became aware of the infringing nature of its actions, that the Court award treble damages for the period of such willful infringement pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284.
- F. That this Court declare this to be an exceptional case and award Plaintiff its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in accordance with 35 U.S.C. § 285; and,
- G. Any further relief that this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted this 13th day of August, 2014.
